Dated: 08 July 2021

Congratuations to Centre for Technology Development and Transfer (CTDT)

University is delighted to note that out of 1.3 crore tax payers (GST) in the financial Year 2020-21 in the country only 0.42% ( 54,439 only) have been identified as those who have made substantial contribution in payment of GST in cash along with timely filing of returns, thereby substantially contributing to building strong nation.

Anna University through Centre for Technology Development and Transfer (CTDT) is one among them and received Certificate of Appreciation from Government of India. CTDT has paid a GST of about Rs.5.11 Crores ( Rupees five crores and eleven lakhs) in the year 2020-21.

University congratulates all the staff members who have contributed for this appreciation from Ministry of Finance, Government of INDIA, in particular the university would like to appreciate Prof.K.Baskar, Director, CTDT and Staff of CTDT for their commendable work. This is one example of hard work in Anna University.

Let us all strive together with dedication and commitment towards Excellence in Higher Education and Research in Anna University.
